

Applicable Ethics, Anti-Discrimination and Environmental Policies

CAPED confirms that it does not discriminate and is committed to taking appropriate affirmative action measures to ensure non-discrimination in all aspects of employment, including recruitment, advertising, compensation, termination, upgrading, promotions, and other conditions of employment. CAPED ensures equal opportunity for all employees and job applicants and does not discriminate on the basis of race, creed, color, national origin, sex, or any other legally protected characteristic.

CAPED further confirms that it has established ethics policies that guide professional conduct, transparency, accountability, and integrity across all organizational operations. The organization also follows environmentally responsible practices and is committed to minimizing environmental impact through responsible use of resources and adherence to applicable environmental standards.

CAPED will continue to uphold and strengthen these policies throughout the development, implementation, and duration of any project supported by Unitaid.

Warm Regards,

Mridu Gupta
